

The Pu'er Tea Exhibition – Public Event Schedule

Thursday, April 11th

- 10:30 - 1:00PM:
 - Keynote Address: Teamaster Teaparker
 - The Art, History, and Taste of Pu'er Tea
 - Presented with Chinese Pu'er tea
 - The Tea Institute and Club officers will brew a range of aged Pu'er tea for guests, during a talk on the history of Pu'er tea focusing on the history and cultural significance.
 - Questions and discussion following
- 2:30 – 4:30:
 - Tea In Nature:
A guided Pu'er Tea Tasting under the Ginkgo Tree
 - Presided by Stephane Erler
 - Held outside under the Ginkgo Tree

Friday, April 12th

- 10:30 – 12:30AM:
 - Brewing of Pu'er Tea: Teaparker
 - “Pu'er brewing practices and traditions”
 - Presented with free Pu'er tea
 - The Tea Institute and Club officers will brew tea for guests while following the principles of traditional Chinese (Gongfu Cha) tea ceremony. While the tea is being prepared, guests will listen to a series of informative lectures on the methodology and practice of brewing Pu'er tea.
- 2:30 - 3:30PM:
- Pu'er Tea Exhibition @ The Penn State Tea House
 - Introduction by Jason Cohen, Teaparker, and Stephane Erler
 - Members of The Tea Institute and Gongfu Cha Club trained by Teaparker will then brew tea for guests while following the principles of traditional Chinese (Gongfu Cha) Tea Ceremony.
 - Questions and answer session following

Saturday, April 13th

- 11:00 – 1:00PM:
 - Pu'er Tea House With a talk on Tea House Culture
 - Talk by Stephane Erler
 - The Penn State Tea House will change its usual menu for a selection of Pu'er Teas, each brewed by one of our international speakers, who will host small round table discussions for our guests.
 - The usual tea house fee will be waived for this event.
- 2:00 – 3:45PM:
 - Lecture: Pu'er Blending - Teaparker
 - “Pu'er Blending Methodologies”
 - Presented with free Pu'er tea
 - The Tea Institute and Club officers will brew Pu'er tea for guests while following the principles of traditional Chinese tea ceremony. While the tea is being prepared, guests will listen to a series of informative lectures on the history of Pu'er tea blending and its cultural significance.

Sunday, April 14th

- 12:30 - 2:30PM:
 - Lecture: Teaware by Teaparker
 - Presented with Pu'er Tea
 - The Tea Institute and Club officers will brew tea for guests while following the principles of traditional Chinese tea ceremony. While the tea is being prepared, guest will listen to a series of informative lecture on the history of tea in Chinese and its cultural significance.
- 3:00 - 5:00PM:
 - Brewing Pu'er Tea
 - A beginners Lesson on the art of brewing Pu'er Tea
 - Basic introduction to Chinese Tea Ceremony and the best way to get good flavor out of pu'er.